Notifications by the Chief Commissioner of Mysore.

GENERAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 165.

The 16th September 1874.

The following amended Bye-law having been approved and sanctioned by the Chief Commissioner, is published for general information.

Bye-law No. 14.—Ruined walls enclosing premises hitherto occupied by squatters who possess no valid title to the land on which the same are situated, may be levelled on the premises being abandoned. In such cases the land so vacated shall be at the disposal of the Municipal Commissioners.

No. 177.

The 21st September 1874.

With reference to that part of the Notification No. 2655, dated 30th December 1872, which is quoted in the margin, it is hereby notified for the information of all concerned, under the authority of Foreign Office Despatch No. 1725, dated 15th August 1874, that the prohibition of the connection of Government servants with Joint Stock and other companies does not extend to the holding of shares in such institutions, excepting as regards Public Officers who are employed in the District in which the operations of such companies are carried on.

The remaining portion of the said Notification, and the subsequent orders issued in connection with it, will, however, remain in full force.

No. 191.

The 26th September 1874.

The following Bye-laws of the Cantonment Municipality are, with the approval of the Chief Commissioner, extended to the town of Bangalore.

No. 43.—Any person easing himself either in the vicinity of, or outside or in any part of any public latrine, other than in the trench made for the purpose, shall be liable, on conviction before any Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding half a rupee for the first and one rupee for the second and two rupees for each succeeding offence.

No. 44.—Any person of one sex who shall wilfully intrude into any public latrine set apart for the use of the opposite sex shall be liable, on conviction before any Magistrate, to a penalty of five rupees for the first and ten rupees for the second and each succeeding offence.

No. 45.—No person shall use a public urinal for other than the purpose for which it is provided; any person infringing this Bye-law by using the same as a latrine or otherwise defiling it, shall be liable, on conviction before any Magistrate, to a fine of half a rupee for the first, one rupee for the second, and two rupees for each succeeding offence.
